Media Collusion

A most important task for members of Freedom First Society is to help others understand how and why the major media are deceiving Americans.

Although many perceive a liberal bias in much of the media, the problem goes much, much deeper, and few recognize its seriousness. The problem stems from a top-down conspiracy that is working to deliver America to a totalitarian new world order.

As FFS VP Tom Gow wrote in the February 2003 JBS Bulletin:

For decades, much of the major media has operated under the influence of an Internationalist

Conspiracy and is providing critical support for a revolutionary agenda orchestrated by that Conspiracy. That agenda does not originate within the media itself. Those who research and try to explain media performance by viewing the media in isolation are doomed to failure. It is impossible to understand what the media is doing and why without understanding the Conspiracy.

The Establishment media is truly a serious threat to our freedoms primarily because it acts in concert with other branches of the Conspiracy — powerful individuals, organizations, think tanks, foundations, and institutions....

Both Masters of Deception and The President Makers provide extensive documentation for the above claims.

Despite their distrust of the Establishment media, most Americans continue to rely on these readily available resources for learning about world and domestic events. And we really have no choice but to use the controlled-media for news. But, as FFS members, we should seek to create understanding of the limits and outright poison in the associated commentary. And then reinforce that understanding with periodic evidence of the betrayal.

Collusion in revolution: Media reporting of the June 11th protests in cities across the U.S. depicted the protestors as merely sincere “supporters of LGBT rights ... angry over threats posed by the administration of President Donald Trump.” By ignoring any subversive agenda and organization driving the sponsoring front groups, the reports assisted the revolutionary assault on freedom’s sustaining culture.

To do so, it is helpful to communicate the patterns and tactics of media deception, rather than citing a long list of abuses.

Gatekeeper and Cheerleader

The functions of the Establishment media in supporting the Internationalist revolution fall into two broad categories: gatekeeper and cheerleader.

As gatekeepers, the media decide which individuals, information, and viewpoints have access to the American public and which do not. A primary objective of the Conspiracy is to ensure that its control of the common sources of information is so extensive that most Americans only hear the Establishment line and seem to hear it everywhere. That grip ensures that people only see a Hobson's choice (really no choice at all) between policies (and often candidates).

However, to maintain their grip as gatekeepers without discussing real solutions, the media must nevertheless be captivating. So the media act much like the promoters of professional wrestling matches, hyping partisan conflicts.

As gatekeepers, the media choose the "go to" experts for both sides (really the same side) of an issue, often sanitizing the credentials of their experts.

The media also provide a forum for leftist revolutionaries and their demonstrations, presenting them as ordinary grassroots citizens with legitimate gripes, while omitting any hint of a hidden agenda. The media thus provide essential assistance in creating the illusion of popular support for revolutionary goals — "pressure from below."

Of course, the most important media function as gatekeeper is to conceal the existence of any high-level conspiracy for power and its subversive agenda behind the myriad of publicized pretexts. The media even give North Korean propaganda credence, such as its alleged fear that U.S. joint military exercises in the region are preparation for an invasion.

The other broad category of media support is cheerleader for Insider propaganda campaigns and the entire Insider agenda. Prominent is the hyping of crises — the "eternal emergencies" the Insiders need to win public acceptance for revolutionary change. Thomas Burke said it well — "The people never give up their liberties but under some delusion." Long-standing media-promoted crises include police brutality, global warming, and an epidemic of gun violence.

In their role as cheerleaders, the media also intimidate and demonize resistance to the Insider agenda (with epithets such as McCarthyism and "climate change skeptics"). A prime example: discrediting those who would expose real evidence of Conspiracy by lumping them in with conspiracy nutcases.

Overlapping roles

Sometimes the media functions of gatekeeper and cheerleader overlap. A good example is the alleged threat of man-made global warming due to the increased release of carbon dioxide. We are constantly told that an overwhelming scientific consensus supports this threat. And the media denigrate those who challenge this consensus as simple minds who prefer their gut feelings to hard scientific evidence.

For a breath of fresh air and much-needed correction, we quote here a few key findings from a 2015 extensively researched publication authored by three scientists — Craig D. Idso, Robert M. Carter, and S. Fred Singer. In Why Scientists Disagree About Global Warming, they conclude:

- The articles and surveys most commonly cited as showing support for a "scientific consensus" in favor of the catastrophic man-made global warming hypothesis are without exception methodologically flawed and often deliberately misleading.

- Many prominent experts and probably most working scientists disagree with the claims made by the United Nations' Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC).
- IPCC, created to find and disseminate research finding a human impact on global climate, is not a credible source. It is agenda-driven, a political rather than scientific body, and some allege it is corrupt.

And, of course, the media completely ignore how the environmental movement was created and funded and the Insider agenda served by the alleged man-made global warming crisis.

Action recommendations: In addition to sharing FFS printed materials exposing the controlled-media (e.g., Media-Controlled

Exposing a pretext: In the above booklet, three scientists provide evidence to dispute the media perpetuated claim of Pres. Obama and NASA that "97 percent of scientists agree" that catastrophic man-made global warming is a serious threat.

Grow to Win

The key to accomplishing all we need to accomplish is the work of members in building Chapters.... While focusing on several of the most promising prospects, we are looking for those who will see the necessity and opportunity and catch fire.

— June Action Report

Tapping the unique influence of each of our members is the path to multiplying our growth. And by using our website as a resource, exercising that influence is easier and less expensive than ever.

We urge every online member to take advantage of the convenience of sharing FFS posts with those they know. For example, a recent post, “Voter-supplied Backbone Needed,” shows that Congress by itself will never put the federal monster back under the chains of the Constitution.

Our goal should be to use our personal influence to help start Chapters in remote cities, even other states. Sharing a stream of posts by itself will not directly accomplish this goal (it will help build traffic to our website and scorecard). But, with occasional follow-up personal contact to gauge reaction and recommend a course of action, we can find and inspire future volunteer leaders.

Tapping Facebook Power

Facebook users: Andrew Carver has added a scorecard share button that appears on each legislator’s scorecard page as well as on the scorecard table.

Another continuing opportunity is the post we announced last month, “Renegotiate NAFTA? No Way! — Get US out!” As you may recall, that post describes the real subversive mission — “progressive regionalization” — of the misnamed “free trade” pacts, in the context of the president’s decision to renegotiate NAFTA rather than withdraw.

In 1995, David Rockefeller associate and Trilateral Commission leader, Zbigniew Brzezinski, openly summarized the subversive strategy at Gorbachev’s State of the World Forum in San Francisco: “We cannot leap into world government in one quick step.... In brief, the precondition for eventual globalization — genuine globalization — is progressive regionalization, because thereby we move toward larger, more stable, more cooperative units.” [Emphasis added.]

President Trump’s announced plan to renegotiate NAFTA to achieve more favorable terms ignores this threat and so will ultimately advance it. According to the Insiders’ Foreign Policy magazine, there is yet no timetable for the renegotiation. Hearings were scheduled for the end of June and talks are to begin mid-August.

Say “NO” to Socialized Medicine

As Marx and Lenin and Stalin — and George Bernard Shaw and H.G. Wells, and all the rest of the “intellectuals” as well as the gangsters of the Conspiracy — have made abundantly clear, you do not entice a people into the net of socialism by calling it socialism.

You call the separate pieces of the program by various names, each of which denotes some supposed goal of “humanitarianism.” Then in due course the poor fools wake up to find that the real name is Communism, and that they have become its slaves.

— Robert Welch, June 1970

As noted last month, the GOP struggle to repeal and replace Obamacare shows clearly that socialism dominates both parties in Congress. In media reports, socialist rhetoric is alive and well, and no one will tell the American people that socialism is a scam to lead us all into slavery. Communicating that lesson is our job.

Recommended action: Revisit our “Say ‘NO’” campaign page and share it with others. Also share the “Ryan-TrumpCare” post with its link to Chapter 1 “Socialized Medicine” of Media-Controlled Delusion.

Save Our Constitution!

by Andrew Carver

The recently updated BBA Task Force webpage (www.bba4usa.org/report/) declares openly the states they are targeting for 2018: Idaho, pay attention! Having tried and failed to pass an Idaho Con-con call in 2017, they ARE coming back for you next year! And to learn what the Convention of States

On the COS team: Former U.S. senators Tom Coburn (R-OK) and Jim DeMint (R-SC) are helping to supply the conservative image needed to sell the Con-con trap to our mostly Republican state legislatures.

Two Bad Boys

Two bad boys climbed a backyard fence.
A crowd looked on in great suspense.
Republicrat and Demublican—
Both vied to own the fate of man.

Bad Boy 1 did a very bad thing,
A shocking Power-grab supreme.
Some gasped. Some cheered. And all agreed--
That he was very bold indeed.

Then Bad Boy 2 took up stage center,
And carefully did the bad thing better.
He put the first bad boy to shame,
And no one saw both were the same.

A cry rose from the seething throng.
"Who did it best?"— no right—no wrong.
The rhetoric flew thick and dark,
Without the truth to make a spark.

Some chanted for Republicrat
And others for Demublican,
But few were found with morals sound,
Whose eyes could see the truth profound—

The simple truth to freedom tied,
The truth with power to kill the lies,
The truth that doing bad things best
Is the Devil's hook and the Fool's test.

folks are planning in any state, check out <https://www.cosaction.com/states>

But the immediate threat this year is not over! The Convention of the States (COS) has been pulling out all the stops in North Carolina. The COS forces planned a massive rally for June 27th, including two of their paid "legends," former U.S. Senators Tom Coburn and (a new addition to their team) Jim DeMint.

The occasion for this glittering panel of luminaries is that S.36, a COS-modeled Con-con call, has passed the N.C. Senate, and the COS partisans are also hoping to get it through the House. North Carolina members would welcome any help in countering the intense pressure to pass S. 36 in the N.C. House.

We have seen this year the lobbying firepower that the Convention of States Project has organized against the Texas legislature. The Texas governor announced, at the end of 2016, that Texas was a major target of the COS forces for 2017 — and that he was firmly behind it.

We also have an urgent need for action to stop AJR21 (a balanced budget Con-con) in Wisconsin. Both S.36 and AJR21 have already passed one house in their legislatures. Please check the info for these on our website, under "Measures Targeted By Campaigns."

The Constitution Needs Enforcing, Not Fixing!

Americans have enjoyed technological progress for so long, they can perhaps be forgiven for imagining that technology promises answers for all problems. But the evidence continues to mount that evil people wish to use that pipedream to get Americans to vote for their own enslavement.

What? How could they bring that about?

Well, wouldn't it be cool if we had a self-driving Constitution (like self-driving cars)? One that was so effective that it kept federal legislators, judges, and executives in line automatically?

Yes, sure it would. But no matter how clear and simple the Constitution may be, there are always people who would prefer to flout it. In short, "We The People" must become "drivers" of our Constitution. That is, we must "bind down" our leaders to it.

This is the lesson the proponents of an Article V Con-con are hoping we and our state legislators forget. For they imply that the blame for rampant violation of our Constitution lies NOT with our leaders — nor even with us — but rather, with the Constitution!

Under the pretext of seeking the mythical, wonderful, self-driving Constitution, Con-con proponents are really providing the path for power seekers to emasculate that document — our vital road back to limited government. We dare not let them succeed!

Action Summary

Note: Some requests below are ongoing from previous Action Reports.
