August 2017

Collusion in subversion: The major media regularly “fail” to analyze the revolutionary organization and real objective behind the culture war, while faithfully highlighting the propoganda. President Trump’s tweet that he was reversing his previous acceptance of President Obama’s decision to lift the ban on transgender individuals serving in the military instantly triggered a smokescreen of media-reported protests.

We Must Sound a Clear Trumpet!

For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

— 1st Corinthians, 14:8

Paul’s admonition to the Corinthians is especially applicable to today. Almost all Americans are mesmerized by voices that refuse even to mention the dominating threat of a horrific Conspiracy. Clearly freedom cannot long survive while ignoring that Conspiracy and its deceptions.

Arguably the Conspiracy’s greatest success has been neutralizing conservative resistance by making certain that conservatives hear only voices that don’t threaten the Conspiracy’s agenda. These voices would have us believe that America’s problems are to be resolved simply by winning a battle between openly contending ideas.

We include here several examples of widely accepted reporting that serves to distract Americans and prevent effective resistance to a looming totalitarian order.

Socialized Medicine

In recent weeks, the controlled media has highlighted the debate over Obamacare repeal. This “responsible debate” centers on mandates, penalties, premiums, subsidies, and coverage — what works and what doesn’t.

All of these reports ignore the critical evidence that, for a good century, Insider-supported revolutionaries have been the drivers for nationalizing medicine. Their pretended humanitarian concern has been merely a clever smokescreen. The real objective is clearly totalitarian —making the people increasingly dependent on the federal government for basic needs. That is the trumpet that desperately needs to be heard.

The revolutionary history is there for all to see — Fabian socialist penetration, the immensely deceptive drive of radical labor boss Walter Reuther, and more. But the media gatekeepers enforce a climate of “respectable” debate to ensure that the humanitarian pretense goes unquestioned, while the totalitarian plan proceeds.

Our campaign page “Say ‘NO’ to Socialized Medicine” introduces resources that recount that censored history.

The Paris Climate Accord

While Trump said the United States would be willing to rejoin the accord if it could obtain more favorable terms, the three European leaders said the agreement cannot be renegotiated, “since it is a vital instrument for our planet, societies and economics....”

In Mexico, former President Vicente Fox criticized Trump’s move, saying on Twitter: “He’s declaring war on the planet itself.” [Emphasis added.]

— AP, 6-1-17

Both the controlled media and Insider-supported politicians portray President Trump as an irresponsible maverick endangering the planet. The truth is quite different.

President Trump’s “difficult” decision to withdraw the U.S.

from the Paris Climate Accord, weakly argued on purely economic grounds, has so far done little to roll back burdensome restrictions, while leaving the real agenda of the protestors and their climate change hysteria unchallenged.

The dominant media are able to portray those who question catastrophic man-made global warming as irresponsibly out of step with “scientific consensus,” despite the overlooked protests of a considerable number of reputable scientists.

For example, Richard S. Lindzen, Professor Emeritus, Department of Earth, Atmospheric and Planetary Sciences at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, wrote in Climate Change: The Facts (2015):

Global warming is about politics and power rather than science. In science, there is an attempt to clarify, in global warming, language is misused in order to confuse and mislead the public....

Advocates of policies allegedly addressing global warming use models not to predict but rather to justify the claim that catastrophe is possible.

And, in the same book, Ian Plimer, Professor Emeritus of Earth Science at the University of Melbourne, argues: “It is skepticism that underpins science, not consensus.”

Refreshing perhaps, but it is not enough merely to shoot holes in the claims of the Conspiracy-supported environmental movement. The totalitarian agenda itself must be exposed. Here is one example of the suppressed story Americans need to hear, presented in Masters of Deception.

With the worldwide inaugural April 22, 1970 Earth Day celebrations, Saturday Review editor Norman Cousins (CFR) brazenly unveiled the real objective of environmental activism:

Humanity needs a world order. The fully sovereign nation is incapable of dealing with the poisoning of the environment.... The management of the planet, therefore — whether we are talking about the need to prevent war or the need to prevent ultimate damage to the conditions of life — requires a world-government.

Realize, too, that we absolutely cannot look to politicians, who are foremost concerned about getting reelected, to sound a clear trumpet. For example, Representative Thomas Massie, R-KY, currently one of the best voters in Congress, issued this “safe” statement on June 1, supporting President Trump’s decision to pull out of the Paris agreement:

There is no way to meet the level of CO2 emissions that President Obama signed up for in the Paris Climate Accord without drastically raising the price of energy on every consumer in the United States and hurting our economy. Pulling out of this agreement was the smart thing to do and I applaud President Trump on his decision.

The United Nations

Russia on Thursday blocked a UN Security Council statement calling for “significant measures” in response to North Korea’s launch of an intercontinental ballistic missile.

The United States had circulated the statement for adoption by the 15-member council after announcing plans for a new sanctions resolution, but Russia raised objections, UN diplomats said.

— AFP, 7-6-17

Where are the conservative media voices who should be excoriating the insanity (rather the duplicity) of empowering the UN Security Council — a coalition of criminals — to police the world? Both Communist Russia and Communist China occupy permanent seats, with China now holding the presidency. Why not invite ISIS to the table?

But the most serious media culpability is covering up the totalitarian purpose of this Internationalist-designed institution, i.e., to subvert the independence of nations en route to establishing an Insider-controlled, tyrannical world government.

The Culture War

The media constantly give respect to totalitarian revolutionaries in the culture war while ignoring their subversive objectives. Consider, for example, the oft-quoted “Human Rights Campaign.” The concern of that misleadingly named outfit is not defense of normally accepted human rights. Indeed, it describes itself as “the largest civil rights organization working to achieve equality for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer Americans.”

Even so, the cry of the LGBTQ movement about defending their rights is merely a smokescreen. In reality, the movement is part of the battle to undermine a culture that supports freedom. With media and Insider support, revolutionary forces are following the strategy articulated by Italian Communist theorist Antonio Gramsci. In essence, Gramsci argued that for a totalitarian revolution to be successful the supporting culture had to be changed first.

Recommended actions: Our first step is to recognize when “conservative” sources are not sounding a clear trumpet and how serious that deficiency is. Ignoring the Conspiracy is a recipe for an oppressive totalitarian future. However, effective exposure means presenting reliable facts, not wild theories, and rejecting irresponsible actions and tangents.

The next step is to sound a clear trumpet and work to build the organization that will enable more willing voices to do likewise. As G. Vance Smith wrote almost 15 years ago, “It Can Still Be Done!”:

So let us sound a clear trumpet. We must find those who will listen and mobilize them and not be disheartened by the many others who having eyes will refuse to see and having ears will refuse to hear.

But while we explain the danger, we must also explain that there is hope precisely because there is a Conspiracy. Just as we know that Southern California fires can be stopped when the arsonists are found, so can the malignant cancer of Conspiracy be removed once its tactics and goals are widely exposed.

One way to sound a clear trumpet is to share copies of this Action Report, particularly the electronic version. Other specific action recommendations follow.

Congress: Just Vote the Constitution!

Several significant votes in Congress are coming soon. One will be a vote to raise the national debt ceiling, allowing government to borrow more money and keep on with business as usual.

Also coming are votes on appropriations for fiscal year

2018, which starts on October 1. Although Paul Ryan has repeatedly promised to return to regular order, with 12 appropriations bills voted on independently, each year he has been quite happy to kick that can down the road.

To assert the House’s power of the purse, representatives should shun any omnibus or minibus measure. And they should especially not cave to Senate inaction by supporting omnibus measures that comprehend House bills previously passed.

After voting against such an omnibus spending measure for the expiring fiscal year (H.R. 244 in the 115th Congress, not yet scored), Congressman Thomas Massie (R-KY) correctly stated:

House Leadership and the media have led the public to believe that passing one giant omnibus every year, at the last minute, is a legitimate way to fund the government and that anything else will result in a total government shutdown. Both are false. We should write, debate, amend, and pass 12 separate appropriations bills as the law prescribes, so that if any one bill fails to pass, only 1/12th of the Federal government shuts down.

Recommended actions: 1) Contact your congressman in opposition to any increase in the national debt ceiling unless accompanied by serious efforts to curtail unconstitutional programs and spending (which currently won’t happen); 2) Urge your congressman to vote against any omnibus or minibus appropriation bills and then support only those bills that include serious efforts to curtail unconstitutional programs and spending. 3) Share your congressman’s scorecard locally.

Save Our Constitution! by Andrew Carver

Those perpetrating the Con-con fraud have been hard at work this past year,

Unexposed scam: Communist China now holds the presidency at the UN Security Council — the U.S. go-to body for CFR world order.

Grow to Win!

Con-con targets: In 2018, the BBA Task Force will be targeting the 9 blue states in their map above. FFS growth in those states should be a priority. But we also need to get rescissions introduced and passed in the 27 red states.

and they are as determined as ever to gain their convention and put our Constitution in the hands of its enemies.

Although we can celebrate that more BBA (Balanced Budget Amendment) calls were rescinded this year than were made (4 to 3, at last count), we should be sobered by the COS (Convention of States Project) achievements: COS boasted bills filed/introduced in 29 states during 2017, with Committee wins in 14, and calls actually passed in 4.

Clearly, it's time to hone our plans and tactics for the future. The enemies of freedom never sleep, and we dare not either. And now is the best time of the year to work on our "Expose the Article V Con-con Fraud" campaign! HUH?? you say...

Indeed, there are several reasons why this time of year, between those hectic regular sessions, may be the most productive:

- State legislators will have, in general, more time available to listen to your concerns.

- They will have also more time to plan new rescission measures to introduce next year.
- There is more time for cultivating new combatants in this war to save the Constitution! (Remember to use our online tools, such as "In a Nutshell, The Case Against a Con-con.")

While contacting legislators, recall that in many states, this year's measures will carry over to 2018: See "Measures That Require Urgent Attention" at the top of both our "measures to support" and "measures to oppose" webpages (under "Measures Targeted By" our "Expose the Article V Con-con Fraud" campaign). Those sections contain only urgent measures that are in still-active regular sessions, or in states that carry measures over to 2018 or to a special 2017 session. So, act on all these measures — even in states whose regular sessions are adjourned!!

We need the help of every member to put Freedom First Society on the map. America desperately needs our leadership, whether building a core of resistance to an Article V Con-con or exposing the conspiratorial agenda behind the drive for socialized medicine.

If you are already in an FFS Chapter, interest your contacts in other states. We urgently need to start Chapters in states targeted by Con-con proponents. (See nearby graphic.)

If there is no Chapter in your area, focus primarily on building sufficient interest locally for a presentation, as a step to forming a Chapter.

Here are two convenient and affordable actions to develop interest in Freedom First Society's leadership: 1) Share posts on our website; 2) Share online congressional scorecards.

Action Summary

Note: Some requests below are ongoing from previous Action Reports.

1. "Sound a clear trumpet": Share recent FFS posts with prospects. Introduce prospects to the revolutionary agenda behind socialized medicine. Invite good prospects to join FFS.
2. Use our new DVD, "How to Restore America's Greatness," to recruit prospects.
3. Contact legislators in your state in opposition to any Con-con calls, current or future. In states that have passed BBA Con-con calls, work to rescind all of your state's Con-con calls.
4. Print copies of your congressman's scorecard and share them locally.
5. Share your congressman's scorecard and our scorecard table on Facebook. Follow up.
